

Directions from Beijing International Airport to Park Plaza Hotel Science Park

BY TAXI: Please print out these directions in Chinese and give it to your driver:

丽亭华苑酒店

北京市海淀区知春路 25 号

电话号 +86 10-8235-6699

(Park Plaza Hotel Science Park, No.25 Zhichun Road, Haidian District, Beijing, phone: +86 10-8235-6699)

The trip should cost between 100-130 RMB and take 35-45 minutes with no traffic, but in extreme cases may take much longer.

Signs to get to the taxi line are easy to follow, and usually the taxi line goes faster than you think (waits are usually 10-15 minutes). Some people may ask to take you outside of this line. They are not official taxis, they will charge 300-700 RMB and you will not receive a receipt.

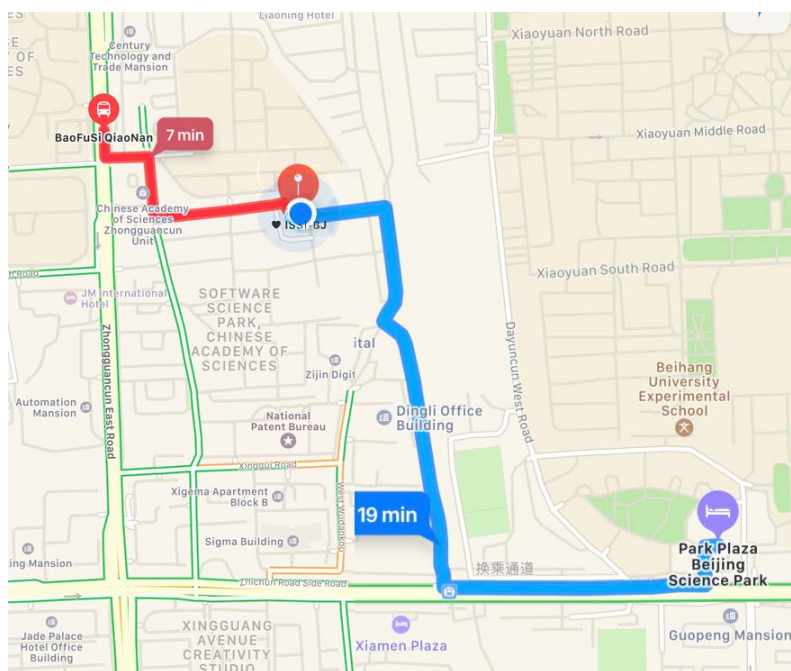

BY SUBWAY: If you arrive during rush hours and have little luggage, you may consider the subway. There's one change at SANYUANQIAO station, then go west on line 10 to ZHICHUNLU subway station, total travel time is roughly 45 minutes and costs 27 RMB (25 RMB for the airport line, 2 RMB for the rest of the network). Line 10 can be crowded.

Leave the station by Exit F2 (see map below). The hotel is very convenient, about a three minute walk from the station. The street goes underneath a train/subway bridge. Walk East, away from that bridge.
